Introduction to Data Applications

Data Request Application Requirement

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR 2016) will give you more control about how your personal data is managed, or your child/ren.

For your protection and security of the data, Townville Infant School will need to confirm you are the person whom the data is about. This will require proof of your identity and proof of consent before the request is authorised for processing, if you are acting on behalf of your child.

Once your request has been validated, Townville Infant School will have one month to respond to your request. However if your request is complex or numerous, the school may require a further two months. This will be communicated in writing.

Data Request Guide

Data Subject Access Application Request

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016 gives you the right to ask Townville Infant School for a copy of the personal information that we hold about you for the purposes of providing services to you.

You are also entitled to additional information which is set out in our privacy notice;

- The identity and contact details of the controller and data protection officer/ head teacher
- The purposes of the processing and the legal basis
- Your additional rights in respect of the data
- Your right to complain
- The categories of personal information
- Who your data has been and will be shared with
- Data source - where the data has not been collected directly from the data subject

Right to Rectification Application Request

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016 gives you the right to have inaccurate and incomplete personal data held about you rectified, known as 'data rectification'. You can provide a supplementary statement detailing what information requires rectification, for example, misspellings and incorrect or out of date personal data.

Right to Data Portability Application Request

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016 gives you the right to request for you to use your personal data across different services. This is known as the 'right to data portability'.

Please note that you are only able to request for your personal information to be transferred if the information:

- is processed for a contract
- is processed based on your consent
- is processed automatically
- was provided to Townville Infant School by you

Right to Object or Restrict Processing Application Request

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) gives you the right to restrict the processing of your personal data, which can include the following:

- the data has been unlawfully processed
- if the data is contested as being inaccurate and requires verification
- a legitimate objection preventing the processing of restricted information

If you would like to object to Townville Infant School processing personal data held please complete the application to tell us about you and the data object to being processed.

Right to Erasure Application Request

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) gives you the right to have your data erased, for example:-

- data that is no longer necessary, and unrelated to the original purpose it was collected for
- is of no legitimate interest to continue processing the data
- the data is being used for direct marketing, without your consent, you can object to the processing of the data
- withdrawing consent where data was collected for lawful basis purposes and you no longer give consent

If you would like to request for the personal data that Townville Infant School holds about you to be erased, please complete the questions below to tell us about you and the data you would like to be erased.

Please note, Townville Infant School may not be able to process your request if the request is subject to a legal obligation compliancy. In the event of this, we will contact you.

Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling

Under the Data Protection Act 2018 you have to challenge a decision that affects you that has been made automatically without human intervention, for example an online form with an instant decision.
